15 Upon further reflection, the court realizes that 16 defendant's right of allocution was not observed during the hearing
17 on March 27, 2007. See FRCrP 32 (i)(4)(A)(ii). Although this 18 formality may not be material in the present case, the court should 19 nonetheless afford defendant the opportunity to speak on his behalf
20 and address the provisions in the government's proposed order 21 before imposing a sentence. The court will be set the matter for 22 hearing on the earliest date available to counsel and the 23 defendant.
